

Thought-leadership through association

ICIS roundtables are high-level events offering premium branding opportunities to sponsoring companies.

Roundtable sponsorship offers you:

- Optimum interaction with senior decision-makers in the industry
- Increased thought-leadership reputation on your selected topic
- Additional visibility through articles in ICIS Chemical Business and online, via ICIS.com
- Thorough, insightful analysis of topical issues

Due to the flexible nature of these events, content, participant list as well as time and venue can be developed to match your requirements
