ICIS enhances crude oil market coverage

Building on its reputation for accuracy and independence, ICIS is pleased to announce the expansion of its global crude oil coverage.

The re-designed World Crude Report now includes price assessments for a number of additional grades of crude oil, along with charts to enable easy comparison between key grades and a view of how prices have evolved.

The World Crude Report is produced by ICIS' global team of expert editors who have a vast amount of experience, delivering crude pricing and market information for 7 distinct geographical areas.

Commenting on these developments, ICIS Commercial Director Simon Platt said "The additional coverage we are providing builds on our extensive experience and understanding of this market and will keep readers on top of price developments across the global crude oil market."
