

Chianti Luxury Wine Tour

- Your private chauffeur will collect you at your hotel and you will enjoy a very scenic drive through the delightful Tuscan wine country, before reaching your first destination: a very good wine cellar your will have a stop in the small town of Greve in Chianti to be seen the triangular main square with lots of historical palaces at the surrounding and with the ancient church of Santa Croce

- After a brief walk on Greve in Chianti your personal chauffeur will drive you to the the components that make wines so unique from region to region.

- After the visit of the cellar and of the annex wine museum you will you will have lunch in the nearby local Trattoria to taste the best Chianti has to offer- Bruschette (rustic bread dripping with extra virgin olive oil, basil and ripe tomatoes) and various regional specialties, and during lunch you will taste the wine produced by the farm

- Following your delicious wine lunch, you can take in an excursion to a charming Tuscan village before returning to your hotel. If staying in Florence, you can visit the medieval walled village of Radda in Chianti, before your return. Radda is lovely, and has plenty of gourmet shops should you want to pick up some nice bottles or decanters on your gourmet day out.

- If staying in Siena, we will take you to the fantastic walled village of Monteriggioni.
 - Monteriggioni is such a gorgeous little town, another "must see" if you will be visiting nearby Siena. Your guide will show you around the town, and you can relax at a wine bar, go gourmet shopping, or just enjoy the atmosphere.
- In the late afternoon transfer to Florence/ Siena.

The ancient wine region of Chianti is a "must do" for wine lovers. Chianti Classico, the sub region of Chianti most highly regarded, is located halfway between the gorgeous Tuscany art cities of Florence and Siena. Chianti is an idyllic wine region, exactly how you imagine fairy tale wine country-complete with castles, hill top villages and vine-covered valleys. The best wines of Chianti Classico are rich red wines, made with the native Sangiovese grape. Many of the cellars date back hundreds of years, and are extremely atmospheric with wine caves and pretty tasting rooms.
