

Cold Cuts, Salami and Co.

Chianti flavors tradition

- Your English speaking chauffeur will meet you at your hotel's reception after breakfast.
- Your day will begin with a lovely drive, enjoying the idyllic rolling hills, medieval towns and cypress lined roads. You'll reach San Casciano in Val di Pesa, in which most of the richest and oldest Florentines families still live. One of the most prestigious estate is Villa Machiavelli the place where the famous writer lived and wrote. A short visit to the estate and museum will anticipate cold cut and wine tasting.
- Why don't discover the old tradition of the "Fiorentina T-bone Steak" in Dario Cecchini butcher shop in Panzano in Chianti. The famous butcher is waiting for you for a Steak lunch.
- Greve in Chianti is a typical village in the heart of Chianti. A short visit in the afternoon in the characteristic center of the village's life, Piazza da Verrazzano, where you can visit gastronomy shops which will be the best conclusion of your trip
- What a intense day!! How many flavors... but your trip in going to finish and your chauffeur will bring you home!

The Antica Macelleria Cecchini runs as it has for 250 years! Macelleria means "butcher shop" in Italian, but here you will find much more. When you walk into this workshop in Panzano in Chianti, you're stepping into the past. Time stops. The owner, Dario Cecchini, is a Renaissance man. Each customer is treated to Dario's stories, polite gossip about mutual friends and the latest news. With your order come recipes for the preparation, Dario's way of preserving the traditions of Tuscany and Chianti. Dario's shop has a lower room, which is a temple to his heritage. Here you may find an art show, a wine tasting, perhaps even a concert, or a visiting chef grazing on his creations. It's Dario's second home.
