

The Kitts are alright

The sister isles of St Kitts and Nevis offer adventure and luxury in equal measure, writes Vivienne Dovi

1 his twin-island destination appeals to those who want to balance exploration with relaxation, indulgent escapes with a refreshingly easygoing atmosphere, whether hiking through the verdant rainforest or spending afternoons by the water.

Within an hour, clients can go from touristy Basseterre to the quiet south of Christophe Harbour, or take the short hop by boat to Nevis in less than 10 minutes. Like many Caribbean destinations, St Kitts is compact and easy to explore, but generally less noisy and less crowded. More than a quarter of the island is covered in lush greenery and its mountains are just as breathtaking as its white-sand beaches. At certain viewpoints, the eagle-eyed can even watch as the Caribbean Sea and Atlantic Ocean meet.

It's a destination that leans into nature, celebrates culture and has a growing portfolio of high-end hotels and experiences.

NATURAL HIGH-END

Luxury here is less about glitz and more about privacy, impeccable service and a genuine connection to the natural surroundings. Park Hyatt St Kitts Christophe Harbour is the flagship luxury property, on a quiet stretch of beach in the south. Along with villas that come with private terraces, plunge pools or even rooftop infinity pools, the resort offers panoramic views across to sister island Nevis. The spa delivers treatments inspired by local ingredients, and even the arrival feels considered: guests walk past koi ponds before reaching an open-air 'Living Room' check-in area that overlooks the sea.

With a Ritz-Carlton resort also breaking ground ahead of a 2028 opening, St Kitts has ambitions to cement its place on the luxury map.

Across the water, beachfront Four Seasons Resort Nevis has long been the benchmark for luxury in the country, offering ➤

ST KITTS ACTIVITIES

Rail: Ride the St Kitts Scenic Railway, a double-decker train that offers a beautiful backdrop on the three-hour round-island journey. The narrow-gauge train travels 18 miles along a route first used in 1912 to transport sugar cane from plantations to Basseterre.

History: Brimstone Hill Fortress, a Unesco World Heritage Site, is one of the Caribbean's largest and best-preserved fortifications. It was built between the 1690s and 1790s by enslaved Africans, and became a key site of battles between the French and British as European powers fought for control over the islands.

Beach: For a lively beach scene, Frigate Bay is popular with locals and visitors alike, with calm Caribbean waters on one side and Atlantic waves for surfers on the other. Expect beach bars and volleyball by day, then DJ beats and bonfires by night.

everything from spacious ocean-view rooms for couples to lavish two-level estates such as Mahogany Hill, which can host groups of up to 12. The service is attentive, the restaurants consistently deliver exceptional dining and the grounds are immaculately maintained.

GOING FURTHER

What sets St Kitts and Nevis apart is how well the high-end resorts combine with island experiences. For those who prefer to sightsee by sea, a sunset catamaran cruise with Blue Water Safaris is popular (from $62). Over two hours, guests sip cocktails and enjoy light bites while the crew point out landmarks along the coast and views of neighbouring Nevis.

For music lovers, the three-day St Kitts Music Festival is one of the island's most immersive and lively experiences. Running for nearly 30 years, past performers have included Jamaican DJ Vybz Kartel and American singer Jennifer Hudson, with a line-up that blends reggae, soca, hip-hop and R&B into a celebration of Caribbean culture and international talent.

The culinary scene is similarly diverse. Marshall's offers fine dining, while Spice Mill

The Beachfront BY THE FIVES HOTELS

The Beachfront by the Fives Hotels, is an intimate boutique hotel, operating on an all-inclusive basis and features a private pool, relaxing sunbeds, and spectacular ocean views with direct beach access.

Guests can take advantage of accessing all the amenities, facilities, and restaurants at the adjacent Essence at The Fives Beach. Beachfront guests can simply stroll across the beach or jump on the golf cart shuttle between hotels.

The luxurious accommodations offer a serene and elegant atmosphere with stunning ocean views.

The exclusive restaurant & bar, Santa Sirena at Beachfront by the Fives is a true gem, offering direct views across the beach, with a rustic chic ambience and Mexican fusion cuisine. Skilled mixologist will craft exquisite cocktails, adding the perfect touch to an unforgettable dining experience.
